I'M WELL INSURED

When the fire bell sounds and the fire companies go racing to a fire, the man who can say "I'm well insured" has a sense of security that the other man who carries his own risks knows nothing about. Good insurance adds to the comfort of your sleep at night, and takes a worry from your day thoughts. I represent the very cream of insurance companies. Let me fix you up a policy that protects.

IT WAS A CLEAN FIGHT PARKER DIED IN JAIL

Say Witnesses to the Pugilistic Fight In Austin—Many Witnesses Testified Today.

(Herald Special.)
Austin, Texas, June 9.—A score of witnesses testified before the investigation here today that the boxing bout which resulted in the death of Victor Lyon was not brutal and was a clean contest. It was also explained that no prize was offered, but that the contest was a friendly one and was not in violation of the anti-prize fight law of the state.

GOVERNOR WANTS REST

Will Soon Go to Mineral Wells For a Week's Stay, According to Dallas Dispatch.

Austin, Texas, June 8.—Unless he changes his program, the governor is expected to return to Austin, after a brief visit to Dallas, and remain here a day or so, and then proceed to Mineral Wells, where he will spend a week or ten days. The governor feels that he needs a rest after his arduous duties in connection with the three sessions of the legislature, and unless the work in the executive department increases, to such an extent as to demand his personal attention, he will take the proposed vacation. The governor is also scheduled to deliver a number of speeches during the latter part of the month.

Man Who Killed Francis J. Bell, Grand Chancellor of Knights of Pythias, Died Today.

(Herald Special.)
Fort Worth, Texas, June 9.—R. R. Parker, charged with swindling a bank here through a bogus check operation, died in the county jail today of peritonitis. Parker was the man who killed Francis J. Bell, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, three years ago.

SEVERE RAIN AT HOUSTON

Temporarily Stopped Traffic—Came Down In Torrents.

Houston, Texas, June 8.—Between 2:30 and 3:30 o'clock this afternoon Houston was visited by a tropical rain storm. The water came down in perfect torrents without wind or lightning, filling the streets from curb to curb and temporarily stopping street car traffic on several lines.

The Preston street tunnel filled with water and forced the crowd returning from the races to take the back track over the Franklin street loop into the city. There was no serious damage.

AUSTIN'S POSTMASTER

N. C. Schlemmer Nominated By Taft. Has Good Indorsements, Both Politically and Commercially.

Washington, D. C., June 8.—President Taft today settled the contest over the Austin postmastership, which has been hanging fire since the death of Postmaster George L. Zimpleman, by sending to the senate the name of N. C. Schlemmer to be postmaster. It is understood that Mr. Schlemmer has, besides the indorsement of Col. Cecil Lyon, the support of the business element of Austin for the past three years and has commercial interests in Travis and Hays counties. Mr. Schlemmer was formerly an American consular official at Mannheim, Germany, after which he was transferred to Bergen, Norway, but left the service because he could not endure the rigor of the Norwegian climate, and then settled down in Austin.
